Warriors To Compete At Memphis

Warrior Baseball

Team At Tullahoma

Rain seemed to be the dominating factor on the TSSAA regional baseball front today. However, thing is expected to slow the state track meet at Memphis where Riverdale will have a number of persons competing for 3 honors. A lot of rain fell in Middle Tennessee last night and Riverdale's baseball team is scheduled to meet Chattanooga Red Bank at 4 p.m. in Region 4 play at Tullahoma. The Tullahoma field is an old established one with an excellent sound crew. So if there is any rain today, bet your money a field will be ready for the Chattanoogaans and Riverdale. At 7 p.m. the host team is slated to meet another bunch of Chattanoogaans: McCallie Prep to be exact.

Ken Riley had his Riverdale tract team mentally and physically ready to go for some state honors although the Warriors are not in contention as a team. Chief threat for the Warriors is distance man Terry Hoover, who is given a chance at beating defending champion John Slaughter in the 2-mile run. Dale Gaines goes in the broad, or long jump, and the Warrior 880-yard-relay-team could also be among the finishers. Dale Gaines, David Johnson, Ricky Webb and Donnie Smith make up the relay team. Clinton Johnson and Gusta Gaines are alternates. In another regional baseball playoff, No. 5, at Lebanon, Cookeville takes on Clarksville at 5:30 p.m. and the host team will be favored to take Columbia at 7:30 p.m.
